2. The brief facts of the case are that the Company was required to publish the notice of its extra ordinary general meeting (“EOGM”) and election of directors to be held on January 09, 2017 and January 23, 2017 respectively, in Urdu language in Urdu daily along with English language in English Daily newspaper. 3. Consequently, the SCN was issued to the respondents whereof they were called upon to show cause in writing as to why penal action may not be taken against them under section 158 of the Ordinance for not publishing notice of AGM in Urdu language in Urdu newspaper.

4. Written reply was received in the matter via letter dated July 10, 2017 wherein it was stated that the alleged default was not intentional and caused due to the non-availability of translator in the near vicinity of the Company's registered office. In addition, the Company was constrained to publish the notice due to shortage of time. They assured that they would comply with the rules and regulations in future.

5. Before proceeding further, it is necessary to advert to the following relevant provisions of Ordinance.

sub-section (3) of section 158 of the Companies Ordinance, 1984 ("Ordinance") provides that the notice of an annual general meeting shall be sent to the shareholders at least twenty-one days before the date fixed for the meeting and, in the case of a listed company, such notice, in addition to its being dispatched in the normal course, shall also be published at least in one issue each of a daily newspaper in English language and a daily newspaper in Urdu language having circulation in the Province in which the stock exchange on which the company is listed is situate.

7. I have analyzed the facts of the case, relevant provisions of the Ordinance, and submissions made by the respondents. The aforesaid provisions of the law are clear and explicit. A company is required to publish notice of AGMs, EOGMs, election of directors or as the case may be, in both English language and Urdu language separately ensuring a wider dissemination for the notice. It is for ease of understanding and enhancement thereof for such shareholder in particular and other stakeholders in general who are unfamiliar or less proficient in the English language. It is imperative that notice is communicated to every concerned individual since holding of that meeting is a very important statutory event. It provides an opportunity to the shareholders, including those in minority, to participate in discussion and voting on agenda items of the AGM that include consideration and approval of companies' financial statements, which not only show the financial position and performance of a company but also show the results of management's stewardship of resources entrusted to it. A notice which is understandable to the average man can ensure the presence of all shareholders. In addition to their responsibilities of overseeing and managing affairs of the Company, directors also have fiduciary duties towards the Company and its shareholders. They are, therefore, liable to a higher level of accountability which requires them to be vigilant and perform their duties with care and prudence. It is directors' responsibility to oversee the functioning of the company and to ensure due compliance of law.

8. Publishing of notices in Urdu and English is a requirement of law but unfortunately, it has been noted that the directors of the Company have not observed the compulsory requirements of law. However, keeping in view of the submissions of the respondents and good past track record of company of complying with the laws; instead of imposing fine, I hereby, conclude the proceedings with a warning to the respondents to be careful and ensure compliance with mandatory provisions of the Ordinance, in true letter and spirit; in future.
