2. The brief facts leading to the show cause notice are that the Company offered shares for allotment to its members vide Circular dated 29.11.2014 under Section 86(3) of the Ordinance and failed to file the same with the registrar concerned within the statutory period as prescribed in Section 86(4) of the Ordinance, i.e. before sending the said Circular to the shareholders. The Circular was subsequently filed with the registrar concerned with a delay of 117 days in violation of the aforesaid provisions of Ordinance.

3. Accordingly, a show cause notice dated 24.04.2015 (the “SCN”) was issued calling upon the Company and its directors / officers to show the cause in writing within 14 days from the date of receipt of the notice as to why penalties for the aforesaid violation might not be imposed.

4. In response to the above SCN, the Company has failed to furnish any clarification for the inordinate delay. Therefore, in order to provide an opportunity of personal hearing, the case was fixed for 10-02-2016 when Mr. Mubashar Shahzad, authorized representative on behalf of the Company and its directors, attended the hearing through Cisco Jabber from Faisalabad and argued the case. He admitted the default of the Company. Further, he requested for taking a lenient view in the matter.

5. I have gone through the relevant provisions of the Ordinance and the record of the Company maintained by this office. Sub-section (3) of Section 86 of the Ordinance, provides that where the directors decide to increase the paid up capital of a company by the issue of further shares, such shares shall be offered to members in proportion to the existing shares held by each members and shall be accompanied by a Circular duly signed by the directors or an officer of the company authorized by them in this behalf, in the form prescribed by the Commission containing material information about affairs of the company, latest statement of the accounts and setting forth the necessity for issue of further capital.

6. Sub-Section (4) of Section 86 of the Ordinance provides that a copy of Circular referred to in Sub-Section (3) of Section 86 duly signed by the directors or an officer authorized by them shall be filed with the registrar before the Circular is sent to the shareholders.

7. 8. It has been clearly established that the Company and its directors, have violated the mandatory provisions of sub-section (4) of section (86) of the Ordinance by filing the Circular with the registrar concerned with a delay of 117 days.

9 In view of above, since the default is established; I therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred under clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 476 of the Ordinance impose penalty of Rs.5,000/- on the Chief Executive of the Company only.
