2. The relevant facts for disposal of this case briefly stated, are that while examining the Annual Accounts and relevant documents of the Company it was revealed that the Company had failed to provide the Commission with the regulatory returns.

Provided that the Commission may on application by an insurer extend the time allowed by this sub-section for the furnishing of such returns by a further period not exceeding one month.

Show Cause Notice

5. It was observed that the company was in default in submitting Regulatory Returns (Form GJ, GK, GI, GH) with regard to the aforesaid provisions of the Ordinance and therefore a Show Cause Notice ("SCN") dated May 07, 2010 under Section 46(1)(b), Part B of Annexure II of the Securities and Exchange Commission (Insurance Rules), 2002, Section 51(1) read with Section 156 of Insurance Ordinance, 2000 was served to the Chief Executive and Directors of the Company, calling upon them to explain in writing as to why appropriate action may not be taken against the Company under the law for the aforesaid contravention.

Company Reply

6. Vide their letter dated May 24, 2010, the Company, in response to the SCN, requested that the SCN may be withdrawn and said: "We are submitting the above information & wonder whether we are required to do so keeping in view of the fact that our Insurance License has not been renewed since year 2000. Hence in our opinion the requirements laid down in the Insurance Act are no longer applicable to our company as we have not transacted any Insurance Business since the cancellation of our License/Registration with the Insurance Deptt."

Hearing Proceedings

7. Therefore a hearing was called at 11:00 a.m. on June 08, 2010 and a hearing notice was sent to the Chief Executive and Directors of the Company to explain the circumstances which had led to such non-compliance. The said hearing was attended by Syed Qudrat Ali, Chief Accountant of the Company on behalf of the Chief Executive and Directors of the Company. He accepted the default in submitting the regulatory returns and pointed that since the returns were not submitted in the past, they were not submitted this year as well but after discovering the provisions contained in the Ordinance the submission was made after the Show Cause Notice was issued. He assured of compliance in the future and requested the Commission to condone the penalty in this instance.

Consideration of the Submissions

8. Before proceeding further, I find it relevant to discuss the duties of the Directors. The directors, in addition to the day to day running of the company and the management of its business, also have some 'fiduciary' duties i.e. duties held in trust and some wider duties imposed by statute and breach of these statutory duties will usually be a criminal offence, punishable by fine or imprisonment. Hence the directors are gauged against a higher standard of accountability which requires them to be vigilant and perform their duties and obligations with due care. In the instant case, however, the directors have failed to perform their duties with due care and prudence. It is pertinent to note that the License of the Company to transact Insurance Business had never been cancelled but the business of the company had been ceased i.e the company could not underwrite any more business. As the directors are supposed to be well aware of their legal obligations in connection with aforesaid statutory requirement and consequences of the said default, therefore, it could be legitimately inferred that the default was committed knowingly and willfully.

Conclusion

9. After carefully examining the arguments and studying the facts and findings of the case as mentioned in the above paras of this Order, the default of Section 51(1) read with Section 156 of the Ordinance has been established. Therefore action against the Company may be taken by imposing a fine under Section 156 of the Ordinance which states that:

Penalty for default in complying with, or acting in contravention of this Ordinance.- Except as otherwise provided in this Ordinance, any insurer who makes default in complying with or acts in contravention of any requirement of this Ordinance, and, where the insurer is a company, any director, or other officer of the company, who is knowingly a party to the default, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one million rupees and, in the case of a continuing default, with an additional fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees for every day during which the default continues."

Order

10. In exercise of powers conferred on me under section 156 of the Ordinance, instead of imposing a fine on the company, I am taking a lenient view with regard to this non-compliance of the company and condoning the aforesaid default this time since the financial position of the company is very weak as its underwriting had been ceased. Additionally, the Company has assured of compliance in the future. Hence the CEO and Directors of the Company are hereby WARNED to comply with the aforesaid provisions in the future.
